from MAINE to CALIFORNIA

Students!!! . . . from the "Land of Remembered Vacations"—quaint New England, with its friendly, green-clad mountains; its cool, idyllic, inviting lakes; its rolling countryside; and dreamy, sleepy villages . . . from the Appalachian "alplands"—over the winding sky-line highways, from a country gored by coal mines and clouded with smoke from blast furnaces . . . from the region of the "beautiful Ohio"—verdant valley dotted with lakes and crested with woodsy clusters of maple and elm . . . from the sunburnt plains of the Middle West, with its golden harvest and January blizzards . . . from the Rockies and the Sierras—snow-capped skyscrapers and vast chasms of scenic beauty . . . from the sun-bathed, surf-caressed Pacific coast . . .

Virgin forests, twinkling pools of pale green water. . . . Sun drenched Elysium of mesquite and mountains.

. . . from CANADA

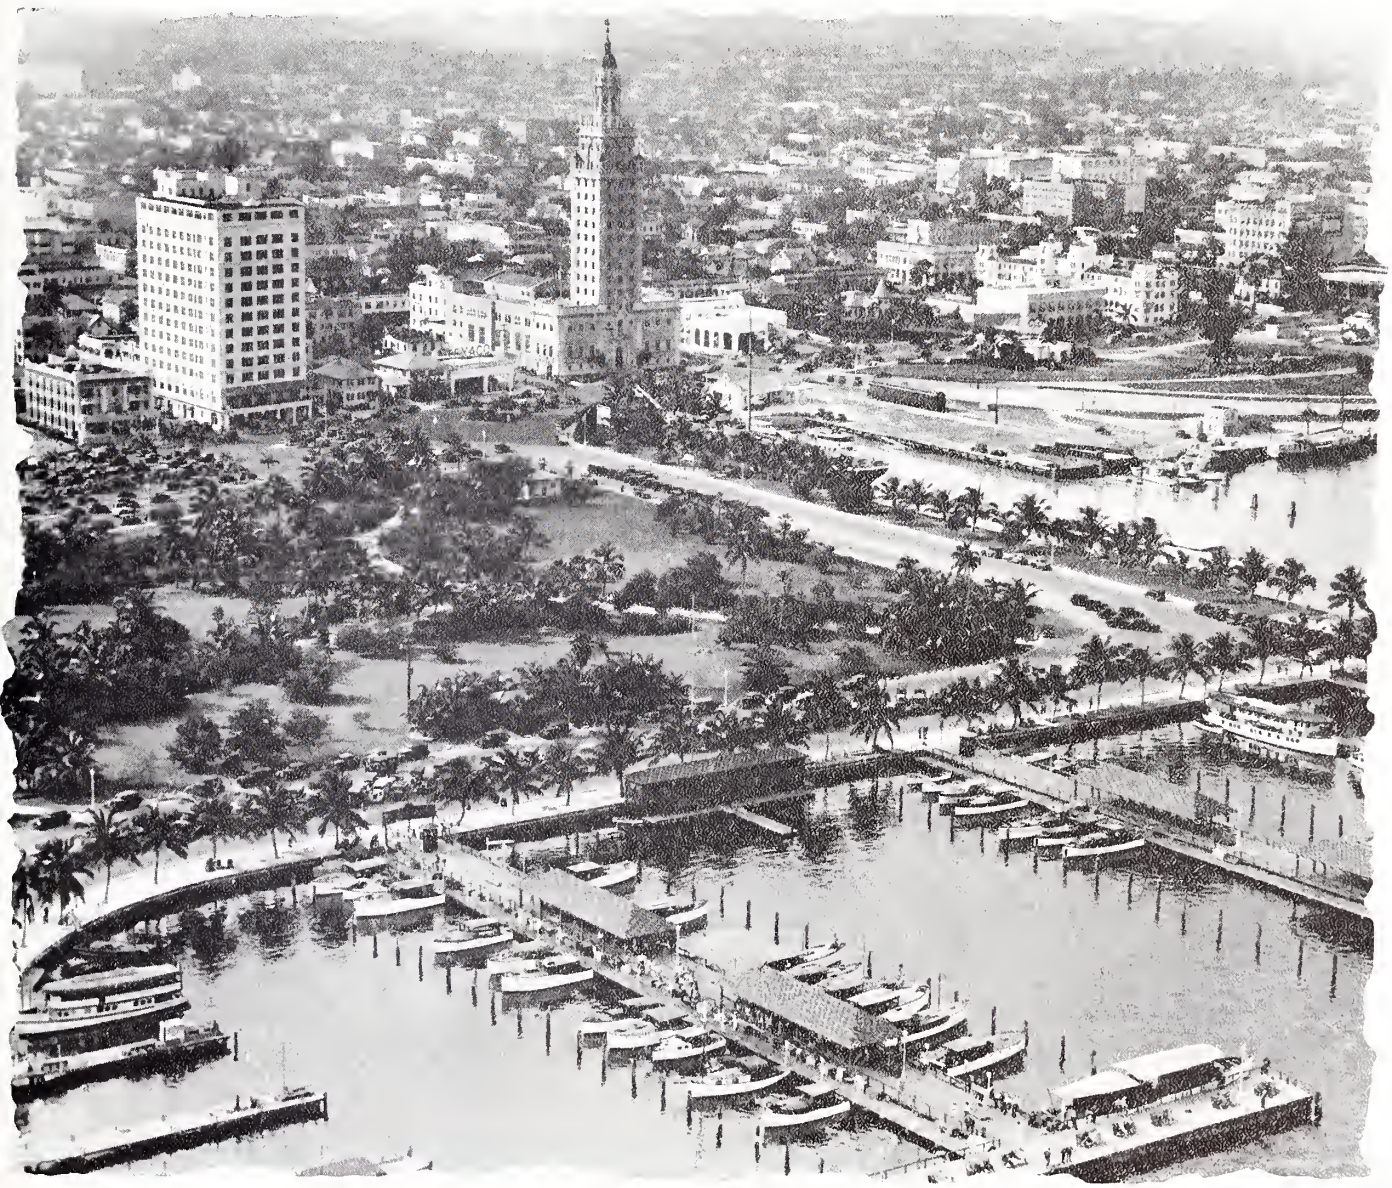
Sapphire lakes reflect sky-piercing peaks and pines of a portion of Canada's sea of mountains. . . . Palm-bordered promenades and parks permeated by the salt tang from the ocean create a colorful and romantic waterfront.

to the GULF . . .

Students!!! . . . from our neighbor to the north —the land of the maple leaf, with its hoary-pated mountain fastness, its endless fields of yellow grain, grinding glaciers and scarlet-coated "mounties" . . . from the picturesque South-land—the country of swaying palms, blossoming magnolias, cotton, banjos, colonels, and the song-writer's moon—the land of family dinners and a cheery "Good mawnin' " on the street . . .



. . . . and from MANY

Students!!! . . . from far-away lands . . . from China—valiant, war-scarred country of rice and courtesy . . . from India—weird and interesting land in the shadow of the Himalayas—land of teeming millions, Hindu fakirs, glimmering mosques and minarets . . . from the "Pearl of the West Indies"—Jamaica, nestling in the Caribbean, with its forests of orchids and amiable smiles of Massive mountains rent by the yellow Yangtze tumble into the China Sea. . . . India—land of fabulous wealth and fabulous poverty—of sacred elephants and Dalai Lamas.

Jamaica, loveliest of all tropical isles, rests in an emerald sea that breaks in gentle surf on creamy sand beaches fringed with feathery cocoanut palms.

FOREIGN CLIMES

Pan-American friendship . . . from Cuba—sunny land of revolution . . . from the other quarter of the globe—Lebanon, with its sacred memories, its sturdy cedars, verdant under the Syrian sun . . . from the "Dark Continent"—Africa, darkened by ignorance and the oppression of the white man; a land of virgin beauty, of frigid mountain peaks and arid desert wastes . . . from Spain—the land of the "Bolero" and black-eyed senoritas, tiled roofs and porticos, a country torn by civil strife but still beautiful with the glories of "the used-to-be" . . .

Royal palms along a South American paseo toss in friendly trade winds. . . . The city of Jerusalem basks in the Judean sun. . . . Primitive jungles and exotic vegetation surround native settlements of the "Dark Continent." . . . Hispanic homes perched high in the Pyrenees echo the romantic temperament of Southern Spain.

DEDICATED to . . .

OUR BOYS in the Service

Our nation is in the throes of the most gigantic conflict the world has ever witnessed. Many young men have willingly and fearlessly left our college to enter the armed services of our glorious country, the United States of America. To them we entrust not only the safeguarding of our democratic liberties, but also their maintaining of the Christian principles of right living that have been inculcated here. Though engulfed in the horrors and sufferings of war, we pray that they will be valiant soldiers and will always maintain a firm devotion to the Captain of their salvation, our Lord Jesus Christ. With love and confidence and prayer we dedicate this VINTAGE to the men of our school who have rallied to the defense of our nation—our Christian soldiers—fixed in their loyalty to the cross and their country. God bless them!

COLLEGE

DR. BOB JONES, Senior

"Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer." This verse from the pen of the Apostle Paul can be aptly applied to our beloved college president, Dr. Bob Jones. We realize that he is a man sent from God—one who is "set for the defense of the Gospel." Every student of Bob Jones College is under obligation to him for his spiritual counsel and fatherly advice. To know him is to love him, and our prayer is, "God bless him always and ever."

"Fruitful in every good work" is our acting president, Dr. Bob Jones, Jr. This cultured educator is one of the youngest college presidents in the country. Not only is he the students' "beau-ideal" of intellectuality and scholarship, but he is also their highest conception of a genuine Christian gentleman. The students of the college deem themselves fortunate in having an acting president who is quick to understand their point of view and willing to help with their various problems

DR. J. L. STONE, Dean

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting, get understanding." Both wisdom and understanding characterize our Bob Jones College Dean. His erudition coupled with innate modesty, his masterly teaching, his perennial youthfulness of spirit, give him an affectionate place in the hearts of the students. Of him they truthfully say, "We esteem him very highly in love for his work's sake."

DEAN OF MEN

Although he is head of the School of Business, Mr. James D. Edwards is also Dean of Men. He is a capable leader, sincere in purpose, and eager to help every student. This efficient administrator and friendly person never fails to "season justice with mercy" when executing disciplinary measures.

JAMES D. EDWARDS

DEAN OF WOMEN

Dean Hazel Claire Hiley is a sympathetic and understanding adviser. Her Alabamian accent gives away the secret of her Southern hospitality. Her poise and charm are evident in the manner in which she welcomes strangers and assists the college girls.

HAZEL CLAIRE RILEY

BUSINESS MANAGER

A congenial and familiar figure wherever student activities are concerned is Mr. R. K. Johnson. His sincerity and consistency in the business routine of college life bear witness of the mighty impact of the Galilean upon his life.

The ACADEMY Faculty

LILLIAN LEE, Principal

With the purpose of offering four years of accredited high school training in an environment that is Christian and cultural, the academy endeavors to mould and develop Christian character during this most critical period of the student's educational career.

Capable and competent Miss Lillian Lee, Principal, efficiently guides the administrative responsibilities of the academy and enjoys the confidence and respect of the entire student body as a result of her humble and tactful leadership.

and College STAFF

The staff was enlarged this year with the addition of two new departments—Publicity and Evangelism, headed by Mr. Henry Goldsmith and Mr. W. G. Haymaker, respectively. These two gentlemen greatly augmented the publicizing and promotion of all the interests of the college.

The President's secretary, Miss Marjorie Parker, was ably assisted by Miss Madeline Philibert, both of whom are graduates of the college.

Upon her graduation here last June, Miss Dorreene Holmes took a place on the staff as assistant to Mr. R. K. Johnson, Business Manager.

The new Mack Memorial Library was efficiently operated this year by two Bob Jones College graduates, Miss Frances Vaughan and Mrs. Lewis Warwick. Miss Vaughan took her B.S. in Library Science at Peabody College for Teachers and Mrs. Warwick did graduate work at the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Charlotte Hunerjager, Dining Room Hostess, and Mr. Chesley Sappington, Supervisor of Buildings, also received their A.B. degrees at Bob Jones College.

Mrs. C. N. Hayes was our Dietician and Miss E. M. Moseley, who received her training at Spartanburg General Hospital and Moody Bible Institute, was the college Nurse. Mrs. W. G. Haymaker graciously assisted the girls in every possible way as House Mother.

First Row: Holmes, Goldsmith, Hayes, Haymaker, Haymaker.

ACTIVITIES

The MINISTERIAL AS

HAYMAKER AND JONES
Organizer and Preacher par excellence.

The Ministerial Association meets twice each week for instruction and inspiration. The class period is guided by our president, Dr. Bob Jones, Sr. This provides the channel by which he drills his forceful, workable, sensible philosophy of life into the ministerial students. It is in this way that the young men are taught how to "shoot the gun," which the other classes help to load. Under this thoroughly practical yet definitely spiritual leadership the Bob Jones College "Preacher Boys" go into life fully equipped to be efficient, aggressive soul winners.

Another great asset to the class is Mr. Willis G. Haymaker, field secretary of the Gospel Fellowship Association. Mr. Haymaker helps the young ministers find openings for service and advises them on many problems pertinent to their work. For many years Mr. Haymaker was business and publicity manager for Dr. Jones in his large evangelistic campaigns. He is,

'42 Bible Conference—one of the most inspirational events of the year for ministers and laymen alike.

"Preacher Boys" come up for air and photograph at the Ministerial Association's Annual Banquet.

SOCIATION

therefore, invaluable in his important position as adviser and assistant director of the class.

Dr. Monroe Parker, Director of Religious Activities, teaches the class in the absence of Dr. Jones. Dr. Parker is a Bob Jones College graduate and has had experience as a successful minister and evangelist in the field. Ministerial students have many problems to face. They must have a working kowledge of the Bible, of course. But it is just as essential that they know and understand the needs of men, and that they develop the most effective manner of presenting the message. These matters are thoroughly covered under the inspirational teaching of Dr. Parker.

This has been one of the most fruitful years in training and service in the history of the college. Under the supervision of the seniors, underclassmen are constantly filling places of service in churches, missions, jails, schools, and assisting in many other religious activities. In this way the young men are able to put into immediate use the effective training received at the college. This year the class has selected for its motto one of the statements which Dr. Jones coined extemporaneously during one of his lectures, "The greatest ability is dependability." Each class period begins with a short song service, and the young ministers always conclude this with their theme song, "Souls for Jesus Is Our Battle Cry."

MONROE PARKER
Director of Religious Activities

The MUSIC

MALE QUARTET

The college male quartet with Francis Roberts, soloist, and Mrs. Fred Holmes, pianist, compose the talented group that accompanies Dr. Bob, Jr., on his annual Summer Tours.

CHURCH CHOIR

The vested church choir lends a deep spiritual touch to the regular Sunday morning worship services on the campus and appear on the radio and other programs throughout the term.

VESPERS

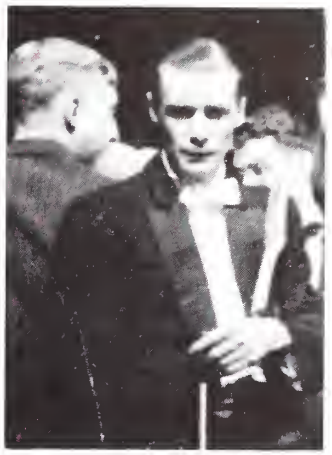
Vesper programs are our means for providing cultural and spiritual re-armament and at the same time giving every student the opportunity of perfecting their potentialities and properly exhibiting them.

ORCHESTRA

Under the baton of Professor Hunerjager the progress of the college orchestra this year was evinced by its fine execution and good grasp of the style and character of the classics.

DEPARTMENT . . .

With the two-fold purpose of meeting the individual needs of the student in the development of talent and musicianship and to offer such courses as will be of general cultural value to the program of the entire college, the Music Department offers thorough training in voice, piano, violin, and pipe organ without additional cost. Various vocal, string, and brass ensembles, which appear on vespers and other services during the school year, afford an ample outlet for talent and practical training. Contests, radio appearances, and student recitals offer other channels of actual experience during the student's period of preparation and add much interest to the all-inclusive musical program of the school.



OLIVER E. STEINER
Conductor

The A Capella Choir climaxed its galaxy of performances with the presentation of "Faust," in which a quintet of Metropolitan Opera stars sung the leading roles.

Annual presentation of Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," by the orchestra, choral club, and outstanding guest soloists under the direction of Oliver Steiner.

BOB JONES, JR.
Head of Speech Department

The SPEECH

In offering a major in Speech, Bob Jones College maintains a thorough and competent Speech Department. Dramatics, Debate, Public Speaking, Radio Techinque, Speech Correction, and Play Production are suggestive of the courses included in this curriculum. Besides the performances of the Classic Players, the college features the radio work. Through the classes in Radio Technique the college sponsors two weekly broadcasts which provide the opportunity for the speech students to receive valuable practical training. Debating is given inter-collegiate and intra-mural emphasis.

The purpose of the college in featuring Speech as a major in its curriculum is to meet the demand for young men and women who are well-developed in poise, personality, and self-reliance. Proficiency in public speaking is conductive to proficiency in Christian service and testimony.

DEPARTMENT . . .

The Classic Players, Shakespearean repertoire group, is a dramatic organization of such calibre as to demand the admiration of every student. Founded by Dr. Bob Jones, Jr., in 1930, it brings to the students a type of culture which not only develops an appreciation for great literature, but schools them in the elements that breed poise and physical grace. Ministerial students find that the discipline and training received from participation in the drama develops platform personality.

The staging and costuming of the Shakespearean productions receive much favorable comment from the audience and demand much hard work on the part of those behind the scenes. All "props" and costumes are made in the college workshop by the students. Efficiency is the first and last work concerning the work of the Classic Players.

"I had as lief the town crier spoke my lines."

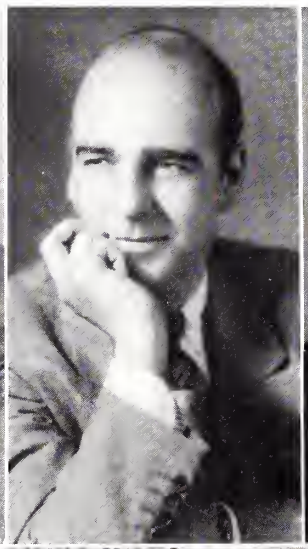
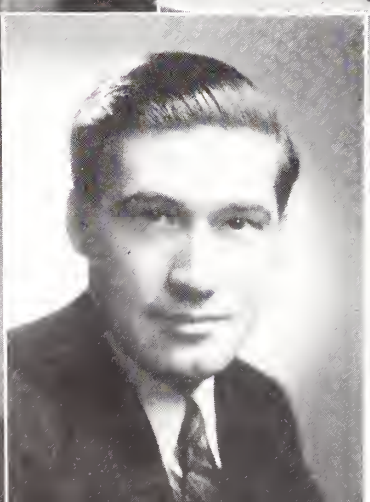
The ARTIST SERIES

Steven Kennedy, baritone of radio fame, and the unusual Farbman Symphonietta were the early attractions of the season. Along with Shakespeare's comedy, "Much Ado About Nothing," and Handel's "Messiah," the annual Pre-Christmas Festival offered Charles Vance, magician; Herbert Petrie and his White Hussars; Sydney Montague of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and Mary Hutchinson, Shakespearean monodramatist. Special attractions during the second semester were the lectures of Rene Dussaq, South American adventurer, and the piano duo of Fray and Braggiotti.

One of the most outstanding entertainments ever brought to the campus stage, and climaxing the series, was the presentation of Wagner's "Faust" at the 1942 Commencement. The soloists featured from the Metropolitan Opera Society were Norman Cordon, tenor; John Dudley, bass; Normon Roland, bass-baritone; Hilda Burke, soprano, and Helen Oldheim, alto.





and SENIOR RECITALS

The "big moment" for the senior music and speech students comes once—the night of their graduate recitals. This year eleven seniors gave recitals in the Margaret Mack Auditorium. The voice recitals were given by James Haskins, lyric tenor; Jesse Roberts, lyric baritone; Glenn Comfort, baritone; Daniel Wiltfang, baritone, and Kennon Minter, baritone. Jeanette Ross was presented in a violin recital. The Speech Department presented the following in speech recitals: Louise Belk, reading "Smilin' Through"; Edwardean Edwards, giving character sketches of "Queen's of History"; Mary Beth Everson, reading "The Man Who Came to Dinner"; Arthur Brumwell, giving a program of poetry and a cutting from Maxwell Anderson's "Elizabeth and Essex"; and Geraldine Williams, reading Shaw's "Joan of Arc."

The ART DEPARTMENT

In keeping with the progressive spirit characteristic of Bob Jones College, an Art Department was added to the ever-growing curriculum. The courses are directed by W. Karl Steele, who has won numerous prizes and awards and has become recognized as one of the outstanding young artists of America. He is exceptionally adept in the efficient training of students in the appreciation and knowledge of principles indispensable to an understanding of real art. Studio instruction in design, drawing, painting, and commercial art is supplemented by an invaluable course in art appreciation.

Student GOVERNMENT

The Pan-Hellenic Council and the Student Body officers form the nucleus around which all phases of campus life revolve. The Pan-Hellenic Council is made up of the presidents and vice-presidents of the eight literary societies. This "Vox Pop" of the campus has as its primary function to govern all inter-society relations.

Student Body officers are elected by popular vote each semester. The duties of this cabinet consist chiefly in officiating at the weekly Student Body meetings and in providing student representatives on the Discipline Committee. As leaders of the Student Body it is the responsibility of this group to maintain high standards of spiritual, social, and cultural life.

Business Manager

This edition of the "Vintage" is a result of the persistent ingenuity, inventiveness, and patience of another annual staff whose supreme desire has been to perpetuate in type and photographs a lasting memory of the achievements and victories of 1942. In retrospect, the problems entailed in the publication of this book fade into insignificance beside the pleasure which we found in our task and sincerely hope that everyone will find in the fruition of our labors the joy we found in editing it.

Annual staff found it difficult to pose this "action" shot.

1942 VINTAGE

Before mentioning the regular staff, who bore the bulk of the work, we would not forget to recognize the splendid cooperation and assistance rendered by every student who contributed in any way in the compiling of this yearbook. To the following, who gave most unsparingly of their time and interest, the Editor and the Business Manager extend their deepest and sincerest gratitude: Kent Wray, Literary Editor; Margaret Smith, Class Editor; Shirley Meier, Academy Class Editor; Karl Keefer, Assistant Editor; Dorothy Hauser, Girls' Photograph Editor; Hoyce Wrather, Boys' Photograph Editor; Bob Hanson, Head Photographer; Mary Ellen Van Nus, Head Typist; Bob Triebold, Circulation Manager; Ted Mercer, Advertising Manager.

MISSION PRAYER BAND

Mission Prayer Band is a group of students whose interest and prayers stretch to the far-flung battle lines of Christian testimony. Many of them have definitely accepted God's call for missionary work. These are students with a real vision, upon whom God has laid a special burden for the cause of the Gospel of Christ unto the uttermost parts of the earth. Their prayers have been a source of blessing and inspiration, both here and abroad. This group is one of the largest chapters of the Student Foreign Missions Fellowship, a nation-wide organization.

LIFE SERVICE BAND AND CHILD EVANGELISM CLUB

The Life Service Band is made up of students who have dedicated their lives for full-time service for the Lord. The members use the meetings as a time of inspiration and instruction in the art of personal work and soul-winning. They have recently organized the Child Evangelism Club, which provides an outlet for definite work among the children of Cleveland and the surrounding territory. These two organizations form another means of active Gospel ministry, so definitely emphasized at the Bob Jones College.

FRENCH CLUB

For four years the French Club has been in operation. It was organized under the leadership of Dr. Sebring, head of the Modern Language Department, for the purpose of procuring proficience in the French language by thinking and discussing things of spiritual, literary and cultural value. At the monthly meetings beneficial programs are given by the advanced students, and there is an annual Spring banquet, as well as an open meeting, for all French students at Christmas time.

EDUCATIONAL CLUB

The John L. Stone Chapter of Future Teachers of America at Bob Jones College was issued a charter as a local unit of the national organization on October 29, 1940. This organization is under the auspices of the National Education Association of the United States. For the last two years the local chapter has promoted interest in the field of education by sponsoring special programs, observation trips, better preparation and a profesional consciousness among those studying to be teachers.

CREED

I believe in the inspiration of the Bible, both the Old and New Testaments; the creation of man by the direct act of God; the incarnation and virgin birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ; His identification as the Son of God; His vicarious atonement for the sins of mankind by the shedding of His blood on the cross; the resurrection of His body from the tomb; His power to save men from sin; the new birth through the regeneration by the Holy Spirit; and the gift of eternal life by the grace of God.

MOTTO

No college shall excel us in the thoroughness of our scholastic work, and, God helping us, we endeavor to excel all other colleges in the thoroughness of our Christian training.

ATHLETICS

SOCCER at BOB JONES

Built upon the theory that participation in sports and other phases of athletics is essential to the maintenance of bodies fit for lives of service and leadership, the Athletic Department offers a year-round program of varied activities to the entire student body. Under the capable direction of Mr. Fred Holmes and Miss Elizabeth Johnson, the present intramural set-up is steadily increasing in interest and efficiency. Society competition is organized and scheduled through an athletic committee which is made up of two representatives from each group.

Serving as the sounding board for '41-'42 sports, soccer formed the gala prelude to one of the most colorful and dramatic years of athletics in the history of the school. The bi-weekly combats, though not completely void of ragged execution, were keen exhibitions of polished action and proved to be potent powerhouses in generating society spirit. The teams tied into each other early last fall; and when the dust and din of battle had cleared away from the end of another thrill-packed season, the Bulldogs were seen emerging from the throes of a three-way tie to claim the championship for Phi Beta Chi.

THANKSGIVING Game

The "Turkey Day" classic featured a thrilling exhibition of well-played soccer characteristic of all the former conflicts. Bryan and Phi Beta squared off for the first game and persistently locked horns for a 1-1 count. The end of the second struggle found the Indians suffering from a hard 3-2 defeat at the hand of the pile-driving Trojans.

Crowd. . . . Kick-off. . . . Conquest!

The GIRLS PLAY TOO

Men's and women's athletic programs are similar in many respects. Contests between the girls' Greek-letter organizations not only offer opportunity to enjoy the thrill of real competition, but add impetus to a friendly rivalry among the societies. After a scrappy year the girls picked an all-star team from among themselves to play the first-place team in the final standings. Under the Johnson regime the girls not only excelled as "socerites" but displayed exceptional ability in every phase of athletic life.

BASKETBALL

With soccer on the scaffold, King Basketball ascended the throne on the threshold of the new year and reaffirmed his reign as the most popular potentate in the realm of sports on the campus. Gay uniforms, jubilant spectators, and exhuberant pep squads were the exhilarating motives that made the men on the maplewood move into fast action that has seldom been surpassed in former years. Eager anticipation mingled with visions of victory and the "hall of fame" preceded the speedy Saturday night court battles. Under the mighty impact of concentrated enthusiasm from a balcony packed to the rafters, the eagle-eyed basketeers never failed to bring the fans to their feet with ejaculations of cheers. Rivalry was in rare form throughout the season as lightning footwork, flashy passing, and split-second shooting characterized every conflict and filled the spectators to the brim with satisfaction.

Excitement soars sky-high at initial game as B. J. C.'ers open sensational season, mouths, and pep-valves!

More ACTION under the Hoops . .

A vigorous and colorful era of basketeering was crystalized in the style of every quintet as they punctuated each performance with as much amusement as fascination. The 1942 cast of cagers in mixing it from whistle to whistle, never failed to evince the humor of the hardwood. If the game was getting on too fast, Phi Beta would send Fergie in to slow things down. When a game was so well guarded that no one could shoot, Pi Gamma tossed the ball through the stratosphere to "ten-flight" Afman. Every player contributed more than his share of agile antics to each super-thriller and in spite of seemingly unorthodox shooting at times, powerful scoring continued to be the outstanding feature of each conflict.

Everyone got a big "kick" out of basketball this year—even from the girls' games. The stands were packed when they invited the boys to attend! The sportsmanship and loyalty with which each society charter endows its teams evinced themselves in every contest. Under such a set-up as this, the intra-mural sports at Bob Jones College are conducive to clean and wholesome living as well as recreation.

Miscellaneous SPORTS

Sub-divisions in each class of physical education resulted in highly competitive groups in the various tournaments and contests. Though the quality of performance is by no means poor, the program affords the average student and the skilled student with opportunities in physical activities ranging from the informal, non-strenuous types to the highly competitive types. Track, tennis, swimming, and softball are the main links in the chain of spring athletic events, the latter holding preeminence and climaxing a well-rounded sports program.

Sigma Kapps and gowns catch Christmas cheer.

"Christ first, others second, self last" has been the motto and motivating force in the Sigma Kappa Rho literary society since its founding in 1928. The aim of the society is the developing of spiritual and intellectuality of its members. Accomplishment of some of these aims is seen in the society's achievements during past years. Kappa Rho is in permanent possession of the Holmes Scholarship trophy and the inter-society Debate cup as the result of three consecutive championships. The first semester this year was again high-lighted by its annual pre-Christmas breakfast.

Since its founding in 1936, Phi Beta Chi has been practicing its motto, "That in all things He might have the pre-eminence," on the campus. These "all things" to the Phi Beta men include social, athletic, intellectual and spiritual activities. At the college commencement last June the "Bulldogs" were awarded the first annual sportsmanship trophy given by the Athletic Department of the college. At the beginning of this school year the boys booted their way to a championship in soccer competition. The annual banquet sponsored for the student body and the outing at Lake Ocoee are two highlights on the social calendar for the year.

"Doggie Roast" at Filauer's Lake.

Sigma Lamba Delta was one of the pioneer girls' literary societies having been organized in 1928. They chose as their society motto, "God First," and have done their utmost to maintain their spiritual, intellectual and social activities in their proper relationships. The society's purpose is three-fold: spiritual development, intellectual attainment, and social and cultural advancement. Their successful competition in intra-mural sports last year brought them the girls' athletic trophy. Lambda Delta is without doubt a very active group of girls on the campus.

"All things in Christ" is the motto of the Green and White, the society founded on the ideals and principles of the great "Defender of the Faith." Since 1928 its members have striven for self-development in spiritual, mental, physical and social life. Last year they came out on top in the intra-mural sports program and were awarded the boys athletic trophy. They also successfully competed for the Debate Cup. This year in a close race they took a second place in soccer. The annual formal dinner for the entire student body and the outing at Parksville were two of the societies many activities.

Ladies' Aid—bundles for Britain.

"Soldiers for Christ," the motto of Tri Sigma, has been the motivating idea in this society's growth since it came into existence in 1936. Sigma Sigma Sigma stands for spiritual, intellectual and social growth, as the Tri Sigma girls have exhibited in their lives on the college campus. Their aim and purpose is to attain God's will in each individual life, and each girl strives for a high scholastic average and sweet harmony and fellowship with her associates. A Christmas party, a society breakfast and interesting and entertaining weekly programs have made this college year happy and successful. The crowning feature was the Tri Sigma dinner party at Cleveland's Cherokee Hotel.

One of the pioneer literary societies is Chi Delta Theta, the Red and White, characterized by its spiritual, literary and athletic achievements since its founding in 1928. Their motto, "True to Christ," has become a cornerstone in the life of each member. Chi Delta Theta has produced many winning teams in the field of sports. The Indians were awarded the trophy for second place in the college intra-mural sports program at commencement last year. The Red and White fitted perfectly into the formal Valentine Dinner which they gave for the student body.

Chi Delt capers—on the cuff.

Chi Sigs solve "Santa" problem.

"Chi Sigma Phi" stands for Christ, scholarship and love, all of which have taken their proper places in the hearts of the members of this society since its organization in 1936. Chi Sigma Phi has as its motto Psalm 90:17, "Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it." The purpose and aim of the organization is the highest spiritual, cultural, physical and social development of each member. Last commencement Chi Sigma Phi was awarded the scholarship cup.

"Faith, Knowledge, Power," as symbolized by the Greek letters of Pi Gamma Delta, has been enshrined in the hearts and minds of its members since its organization in 1936. Their motto, "His will . . . our desire," has been their battle-cry in all of their activities. The members of Pi Gamma Delta have, through the society's functions, endeavored to develop themselves spiritually, mentally, physically and socially. "A lovely time was had by all" at the annual pre-Christmas breakfast at the Cherokee Hotel for its members and their faculty guests. The annual outing at Hiwassee Beach always proves a time of fun and fellowship.

In APPRECIATION

In conclusion the Editor and Business Manager wish to take this opportunity to thank every student and faculty member who in any way, through advice or actual work, contributed to the presentation of this record of what we consider one of the most eventful years in the history of the college. Sketching the activities of the past year has been a real pleasure—a joy due largely to individuals whose cordial help has been appreciably indispensable. Recognition and praise is due Mr. Robert B. Faerber of Alabama Engraving Company, whose sincere interest in Bob Jones College was shown by his excellent and liberal advice in the planning of the book. To Mr. John T. Benson, who worked out the details for the printing of the book to produce the most attractive and unique effects possible, we are deeply grateful. Our appreciation is extended to the Stanfield Studio for efficiently producing the photographs appearing in the class panels and feature section, to Mrs. Stenholm for her help and inspiration as faculty advisor, and to Mrs. J. L. Stone and Miss Alice Moore for their service as proofreaders.
